

KERR

LOUISE LINCOLN KERR
CULTURAL CENTER

ASU
Public Events

PRESENTS

Roadside Theatre & Friends

Featuring:
Idiwanan An Chawe
Youth Dancers
from the Gila River Indian Community
&
Excerpts from La Pastorela
featuring Zarco Guerrero as The Devil

November 13 - 8:00 PM
$13 Gen/$15 Res

Children 12 and under 1/2 price
Untold Story Festival Partners and ASU Staff/Faculty $3.00 off
Student, Senior and Group Rates Available

For Information/Tickets call (602) 965-5377

Presented by ASU Public Events

Roadside Theatre joins with Idiwanan An Chawe (Zuni Theatre Company), youth dancers from the Gila River Indian Community, and Zarco Guerrero presenting excerpts from La Pastorela: A Christmas Play in Guadalupe, to provide an exciting evening full of tales and music that celebrates the merging of cultures in our community. Roadside Theater has entertained audiences throughout the US and Europe with original plays drawn from the rich culture and history of its' Appalachian home. ASU Public Events 1998-99 season "Untold Stories" is dedicated to stories which connect communities by helping us to see each other and ourselves from new perspectives.

Join members of the company on Friday, November 13th at 10:30 am for Coffee at Kerr, a free informal concert/discussion series featuring Kerr Guest Artists. RSVP for Coffee at Kerr is required. The Kerr Cultural Center is located at 6110 N Scottsdale Rd (off Rose Lane - South of the Borgata Shopping Center). Box office hours are Noon - 5pm, Monday - Friday and one hour prior to all ticketed events.

Roadside Theater & Friends is part of Kerr's 1998-99 Season of Untold Stories, and is presented by

THE Tribune