and Commonwealth.

} on an Indictment
} for murder of Ira Mullins.

And the said Defendant M B Taylor in his own proper person and by Attorney comes and says that the Commonwealth should not further prosecute him upon said supposed Indictment. because he says that said supposed Indictment comes from the presentment returned by the Grand Jury, and now filed among the proceedings in this case. in this that said presentment made by the Grand Jury only charges this defendant with Manslaughter, as is fully shown by said presentment which is in the words <sup>7 figures</sup> following to wit
"We the Jury present M B Taylor, for shooting and killing, Ira Mullins, in Hiram Co. Va., on the 14th day of May 1892. on the evidence of Jane Mullins."
