

the Greeter

FREE

September, 1988

Bismarck-Mandan's City Magazine

Mountain traditions play on the plains

Entertainment from the Appalachian Mountains

comes to Bismarck on Sept. 29. The Roadside Theater attracts people not in the habit of attending theater because it draws upon the hill folks' down-to-earth traditions of storytelling and guitar, banjo and fiddle playing.

The performance is at 8 p.m. in the Bismarck State College auditorium. Tickets are available at the door. Sponsors of the shows are Dakota West Arts Council, the N.D. Council on the Arts and the National Endowment for the Arts.

THE ARTS

This calendar sponsored by
Prairie Public Radio

90.5 fm Bismarck • 89.5 fm Williston
89.9 fm Dickinson • 88.9 fm Minot

Calendar provided by Dakota West Arts Council

THEATER AND MUSIC

September 29—8 p.m.—Sidney J. Lee Auditorium at Bismarck State College. "Roadside Theatre" is presented in cooperation with BSC, University of Mary and Dakota West Arts Council with partial funding through the N.D. Council on the Arts and the National Endowment for the Arts. Tickets are $5.00 at the door.