Dear Gentlemen,

I think it was a great show and I like the funny part. You play the banjo good. Did your mother teach you how to play the banjo? The funnies part is about the boy, girl, man, woman, and the monkey and I like "Cindy". It was fun, are both of your names Won and Don, I am glad that you invited us to look at the show. It was fun. I hope you invite us again because it was fun.

Sincerely,
your friend,
Kimberly Nickelson

Dear Gentlemen

I really liked your show. I liked the songs you made up. The next time we might can do a show for you. Maybe we can make up a song to sing for you. I liked the banjo. It was the best show I have ever been to. Maybe when we put on our show we can come up there where you live. And I know everybody liked the way you did. And I hope you liked the way we acted and I hope you will come back to perform for us.

Dear Gentlemen,

I'm glad that you came to Knoxville so we could see you. Next year we want you to come back to see us. I would like to play your banjo one time. I will come to see you this summer. Do I hope you will be there.

Sincerely

Bobby Rivers
