

THE FIRST ANNUAL

A PLACE WHERE CULTURES
MEET...

SHARE STORIES,
FOOD, SONGS AND DANCE,
AND GAIN
A DEEPER UNDER-STANDING
OF ONE-ANOTHER.

© JILL SIERRA 2002

TAMEJAVI

FESTIVAL

Presented by the Central Valley Partnership's Civic Action Network
Sponsored by the Pan Valley Institute

TOWER
DISTRICT,
FRESNO, CA

APRIL
26-28
2002

MARK YOUR CALENDAR!

THE FIRST ANNUAL

TAMEJAVI

- FESTIVAL -

PLAN TO ATTEND: APRIL 26-28, 2002
TOWER THEATER AND COURTYARD, FRESNO, CA

"TAMEJAVI" is derived from the Hmong, Spanish, and Mixteco words for a cultural harvest market.

TAj Laj Tshav Puam, MErcado, and NunJAVI merge together and become...TAMEJAVI!

(Pronounced "tah-meh-jah-vee")

FESTIVAL FEATURES INCLUDE:

- Outdoor Tamejavi marketplace for the whole family
- Networking opportunities for local and regional civic participation projects
- Music, theater, multi-media, poetry and art showcases
- Interactive Workshops and Conversations—"Platicas"

A FREE PUBLIC EVENT. Organized by the Central Valley Partnership and the Pan Valley Institute. With support from The James Irvine Foundation.

BUILDING COMMUNITY THROUGH CULTURAL EXCHANGE

Please deliver to:

Phone: 559-222-7678

Fax: 559-222-7682

Email: Event Coordinator Terry Maestas at bizclub@earthlink.net or call 559-438-6745